Novotel has identified four categories into which the majority of meetings fall:

BRAINTRAIN MEETING

The right conditions to allow your TRAINING to succeed.

Most companies need a venue to hold training sessions on a regular basis for their staff or, in the case of training organisations, for their clients. Typical aims are:

- to achieve the educational goals of the training course
- to give participants the desire to put into action what they have learned
- to stimulate discussion and encourage networking

GO TEAM! MEETING

The environment and the atmosphere to unite your TEAM.

As a manager, you probably bring your team together regularly to hold meetings outside your usual setting, or to review and assess the team's track record, its objectives, results, successes and failures. Typical aims are:

- to re-motivate your team by setting new objectives
- to reinforce their feelings of being part of the company
- to air problems and find the right solutions by discussing them with all the participants
- to clarify how the company works and establishing a roadmap on which participants can base their work

SHOW AND TELL MEETING

For PRESENTATIONS that really convince your audience.

Presenting new products or new services to your clients, your distribution network, or a network of opinion leaders, is a regular necessity for many companies. You may want to share your company's results with your shareholders and get them to sign off your strategy. Maybe you need to inform the members of an association about actions that have been carried out and the results they achieved. Typical aims are:

- to test the relevance of your project
- to court your clients, convince your distributors, and get your shareholders to agree with your plans for the company and decide on a roadmap to base future actions on

MINDSHARE MEETING

A group dynamic perfect for BRAINSTORMING and creativity.

The format when you're looking for strong, innovative ideas to launch new products or new services, improve your current offering, dream up new ways to operate, or develop a new action plan with your team. Typical aims are:

- to collect as many ideas as possible by bringing your team together in a relaxed setting
- to optimise discussion in order to drive your company's projects forward
- to create a convivial atmosphere so everyone feels they can speak openly and freely
